New Events Draw Public Attention To Congress Talk

Washington, Oct. 30.—(AP)—Events are shaping to focus public attention on President Roosevelt's message opening the coming special session of Congress more sharply than on any similar utterance since his first inaugural address in 1933.

No suggestion has yet come from the president himself of any purpose to expand that address beyond the outline of a legislative five-point program such as he sketched in his recent fire-side chat. Yet evidence of cumulative pressure upon him—and upon assembling members of Congress—for action promptly to stem downward business trends and reverse the prolonged down swing of the stock market increases day by day.

SENATORS SAY FARMERS WANT CROP CONTROL

Committee Members Report On Talks Over Country

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 30.—(AP)—Two members of the Senate agricultural sub-committee, which for a month has been holding hearings in various parts of the country seeking farm legislation sentiment, today said a vast majority of farmers want crop production control.

Senator Elmer Thomas of Oklahoma said 95 per cent of the farmers who have appeared before the sub-committee want production control incorporated in the farm bill to be considered by Congress in special session next month.

"They want the over-normal granary as insurance against the non-productive years and continuation of the soil conservation program," Senator Thomas asserted.

Senator Allen J. Ellender of Louisiana declared all farmers recognize the need for enactment of a farm bill, and while there was difference of opinion as to its provisions, all want legislation that would bring about stable prices—"prices they can depend on, not subject to violent fluctuation."

He said the majority favored a law which would make production control compulsory.

ASK ILLINOIS CITIES TO CONSIDER HOUSING

Chicago, Oct. 30.—(AP)—The State Housing Board recommended at a meeting today that all Illinois communities give immediate consideration to the possibility of qualifying for loans and grants for low rent housing projects under the federal housing act, through which it said a maximum of $852,000,000 might be available in the state.

Chairman Alfred K. Stern said preliminary plans for low rent housing projects had been made at Peoria for a project of $1,350,000; at St. Clair county (East St. Louis) for a project of $3,000,000 and in Chicago for a project of $9,000,000.

FIFTEEN STATES PREPARING FOR VOTE TUESDAY

Scattering Off-Year Campaigns Draw Varied Claims

By The Associated Press
In fifteen states, scattering off-year election campaigns drew toward a close today with the usual widespread claims from both sides of victory on November 2.

From a national standpoint the chief interest lay in the signs that might be raised to show which way the political winds are blowing, some hint of what may be expected in next year's congressional elections.

Two governors, four members of Congress, half a dozen state legislatures and the mayors of several large cities are to be elected Tuesday. The governors are in Virginia and New Jersey. The members of Congress are in Virginia and New York. The chief mayoralty elections are in New York and Detroit.

These mayoralty elections and the New York congressional and New Jersey gubernatorial supply the chief tugs of party against party. But even here the issues are greatly complicated by other questions.

In New York City, Mayor Fiorello H. LaGuardia running for re-election as a Republican, has supported President Roosevelt. In New Jersey, Senator A. Harry Moore, a Democrat, seeking election for a third time as governor, has opposed some of the administration plans.

And the big fight in Detroit is between candidates who have drawn the backing of the Committee for Industrial Organization on the one hand and of the American Federation of Labor on the other.

Gov. Horner Refuses To Change Decision On Pension Offices

Disregards Opinion of Kerner Regarding Partisan-ship Nominations

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 30.—(AP)—Governor Horner today refused to alter, despite the Attorney General's recent ruling, his demand that county boards select nominees for superintendents of old age assistance on what the state administration describes as a non-partisan basis.

Advising county boards to "follow the rules and regulations of the department of public welfare," Governor Horner charged that "the spirit of the old age assistance law" had been ignored.

The attorney general held recently that the state does not have authority to reject county welfare department nominations not giving representation to both political parties. Governor Horner ordered the nominations of 42 chairmen returned.

"Irrespective of technical questions involved, I, as Governor, am determined that partisan considerations shall not enter into the administration of old age assistance," Mr. Horner said.

The governor's statement came at a time when several of the 42 counties whose nominations for welfare superintendents were rejected had already announced they would offer again original lists. The governor's statement put the next move up to the county chairmen.

Trap Insurgents on A Hill Near Madrid

Hendaye, Franco-Spanish Frontier, Oct. 30.—(AP)—Spanish government communications tonight said a group of insurgents had been isolated atop a hill south of Madrid, with government machine guns sweeping all approaches.

The sharp engagement took place at Cuesta de La Reina, 20 miles from Madrid. Insurgent dispatches first reported a government attack was being made. Later, a Valencia communique said an insurgent counter-attack was beaten off and the enemy were surrounded.

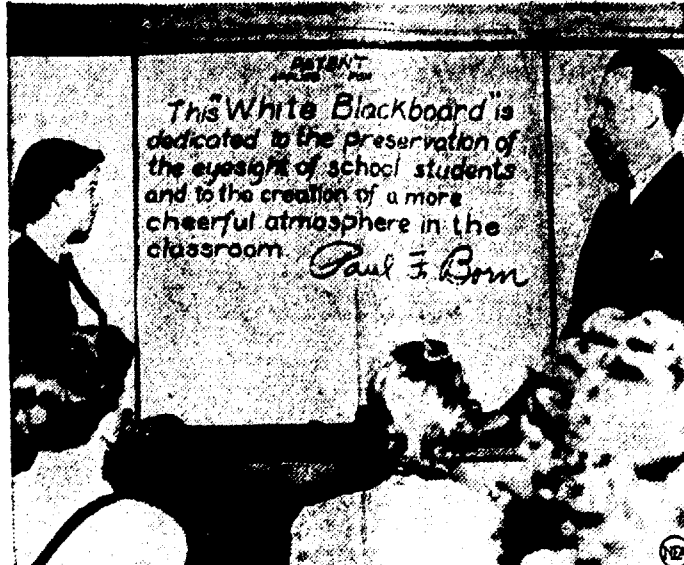

Close fighting raged along the year-old siege lines striding Madrid to the west. Insurgent infantry drove desperately toward the Sofia quarter, in the Ursa section where government troops barricaded houses against a bayonet rush.

A 10 piece orchestra will make its first appearance Sunday evening at the gospel service hour at Grace M. E. church.

The personnel of the orchestra consists of Mrs. Ralph Hutchinson, piano; D. C. Hitt, Carol Hitchcock and Harry Birdsell, violins; M. Ellis and G. Grover, cellos; M. E. Gilbert, flute; W. L. Jeffries, clarinet; Bernard Strongman, cornet; W. C. Hitt, bass.

A 'White Blackboard' for School

The traditional blackboards in American schools soon may become as outmoded as hand slates, if "white blackboards" like the one pictured above prove successful. The inventor, Paul F. Born, right, president of the Elgin, Ill., board of education, has just written his message to Elgin high school pupils in black chalk.

ITALIAN ENVOY QUILTS PARIS ON IL DUCE ORDER

Ambassador's Recall Aggravates Strained Relations

Paris, Oct. 30.—(AP)—Premier Mussolini of Italy today recalled his ambassador from Paris in a move which diplomats considered as aggravating France's strained diplomatic relations with Italy.

Ambassador Vittorio Cerruti will return to Rome tomorrow night, Italians said, for a leave of absence of "more or less long duration." Baron Angelo Scaduto Mendoza, counselor of embassy, is also leaving his post, placing the delicate Italo-French relations in the hands of a minor official.

The sudden recall was made, a usually well-informed diplomatic source said, because France had failed to send an ambassador to Rome and left a charge d'affaires in control of Italian relations rather than recognize the Fascist conquest of Ethiopia.

(In Rome informed quarters said the Cerruti move was part of a contemplated shake-up in the Italian diplomatic service. These unconfirmed reports said the new ambassador would probably be Renato Prunas, now in the Rome foreign ministry. Mussolini was said to want to try a new ambassador as he was not satisfied with relations with France.)

An Italian embassy spokesman said no communique would be issued concerning Cerruti's departure but "there will be no denial."

Japan, Russia Add To Border Forces

Peiping, Oct. 30.—(AP)—Trustworthy sources said today that both Japan and Russia are rapidly increasing their forces along the boundary between Japan's protectorate of Manchoukuo and Soviet Siberia.

It was authoritatively estimated 40,000 Japanese troops who had taken part in the conquest of North China have been sent into North Manchoukuo. Foreign sources have reported the movement of Japanese troop trains northeastward through Tientsin.

It was reported also that 20,000 Japanese troops had been sent recently from Korea into eastern Manchoukuo where border tension was heightened by a Soviet-Manchoukuo clash on the Tumen river boundary Friday.

According to Domei, Japan's national news agency, travelers who have come through Siberia recently have told of large movements of the Red army along the trans-Siberian railway into Siberian provinces adjoining Manchoukuo.

ISOLATED ECONOMY

Washington, Oct. 30.—(AP)—The government had 118 fires in its Washington office buildings during the first eight months of this year. The damage, however, totaled less than $800—about $7 a fire.

Writer Ends "Protest" In Jail

East Stroudsburg, Pa., Oct. 30.—(AP)—Carl Clausen, writer and world traveler, returned to his mountain home overlooking Delaware Water Gap today, glad to be free but with only superlatively favorable comment for his treatment in the Monroe county jail.

He took a five day term in preference to a $12.50 fine in protest against the Pennsylvania motor vehicle code which he said should require a driver to signal a right turn.

"That's what caused the accident," he declared. "The other man didn't signal."

Clausen admitted he was technically wrong, but chose the jail sentence "in protest." He began his jail term last Monday.

He hurried from the jail today and headed for a restaurant and a good meal.

"Not that the jail food was good," he explained. "It was excellent. But the rest has given me a wonderful appetite."

NEW INCIDENTS HAMPER PEACE NEGOTIATIONS

Brussels Parley May Be Marred By Jap, British Trouble

London, Oct. 30.—(AP)—Tension between Great Britain and Japan, aroused by a series of fatal incidents in the Shanghai war zone, today narrowed the possibilities for success of the Brussels conference to halt the Chinese-Japanese war.

As the London delegation, headed by Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden, made ready to go to the Belgian capital Monday night the British foreign office sought a full report on the killing of three British soldiers by Japanese troops at Shanghai yesterday.

The latest incident in the series starting with the wounding of Sir Hugh Knatchbull-Hugessen, British ambassador to China, stirred new British feeling against Japan. It was apparent in official quarters that the repeated occurrences had strained British patience with mere Japanese regrets.

At the same time growing Japanese bitterness against Britain was reported from Tokyo where the "council on the current situation," an unofficial body including members of parliament, army leaders and industrialists suggested Japan might break off diplomatic relations with Britain.

Reports from Shanghai indicated Japanese resented British troops stopping Japanese troop launches from going up Soochow Creek yesterday. Dispatches said Japanese declared a British soldier had touched a Japanese machine gun, "thus insulting the imperial Japanese navy."

Indications in London were that Britain would enter the Brussels talks Nov. 3 with a "much stiffer back" as the result of repeated attacks on her troops and property in China.

State Corn Husking Mark Seems Unsafe In Contest Monday

Twelve Experts Will Compete Near Princeton for 1937 Championship

Chicago, Oct. 30.—(AP)—A new state corn husking record appeared likely tonight with the announcement of the 12 experts who will compete near Princeton Monday for the 1937 championship.

The list of entries showed three of this year's county winners had higher marks than the 41,175 bushels husked by Adam Byczynski, 28, of Bureau county, to win the title last year.

The three leaders were Lester Johnson of Knox county, who husked 42,068 bushels in winning his county championship; Donley Martin, who won with 41,514 bushels in LaSalle county; and William McMurray of Irroquois, who husked 41,371.

Roy Dreumann, this year's Bureau county winner, was entered as representative of the host county. The other entries were:

William Rose of Henry county, 40,328 bushels; John Timm, DeKalb, 39,681; Richard Metzler, Rock Island, 39,021; Elmer Endress, Stark, 38,595; Bea Brown, Mercer, 38,349; Harlan Kohn, Macon, 37,697.

The Prairie Farmer, sponsor of the contest, arranged to hold it on the farm of Frank Grissell, near Princeton and predicted close to 50,000 spectators would attend.

U. S. NATIONAL GUARD ASKS FOR MORE ARMS

San Francisco was chosen for the 1938 convention.

MR. AND MRS. BYNO TIPS ANNOUNCE BIRTH OF SON

JAPAN RESENTS BRITISH 'HELP' TO THE CHINESE

Resolution Threatens To Break Diplomatic Relations

Shanghai, Oct. 31.—(Sunday)—(AP)—Three more British soldiers were wounded by stray shells early today in the Jessfield Park area of Shanghai, creating a new strain on Anglo-Japanese relations.

Tokyo, Oct. 30.—(AP)—Members of the unofficial "council of the current situation," including high army officers and members of both houses of parliament, served notice today diplomatic relations between Japan and Great Britain might be severed.

In a resolution passed unanimously with cheers, the more than 100 highly-placed Japanese charged Great Britain had been assisting China and added: "The Japanese can not allow the British to continue unmolested in their present improper doings."

The resolution declared Britain had been the main driving force in persuading convocation of the Brussels nine-power pact conference Nov. 3 in an apparent effort to start intervention in the Chinese-Japanese undeclared war.

"If the British fail to reconsider their attitude," the resolution said "we may be forced to take an attitude of grave determination by severing years of friendly diplomatic relations."

Those present at the emergency council meeting included Tetsuo Yamamoto, one of the dominant political party leaders and a former cabinet member; Lt. Gen. Yoshitatsu Tatekawa, prominent in nationalist movements; and Shigeo Tsuda, an outstanding industrialist.

Anti-British feeling has been rising steadily in Japan with charges the British fostered a report that Japanese airmen shot 2,000 Chinese non-combatants in Canton and the Japanese navy had torpedoed Chinese fishing junks.

California Supreme Court Rejects Plea Of Thomas Mooney

Accused Labor Rioter Says He Will Take Case to U. S. Supreme Court

San Francisco, Oct. 30.—(AP)—The state supreme court today smashed Thomas J. Mooney's latest California effort to upset his conviction 20 years ago as a parade bomber—a case thrice denounced by government agencies and by laboring classes around the world.

The court sharply rejected Mooney's demand for freedom and vindication on the ground that he was convicted by perjury and frameup. Five justices subscribed to the opinion. The state, Justice William J. Langdon, dissented.

In San Quentin prison, Mooney said he had been "fantasizing this action for two years" and that the case would go quickly before the United States supreme court.

"We will make no attempt to go before the state supreme court again," he said.

George T. Davis of Mooney counsel said the decision was "unjust, unfair and illogical x x x Mooney x x x never can expect to have justice in California."

Groucho and Chico Marx Found Guilty

Los Angeles, Oct. 30.—(AP)—Groucho and Chico Marx, movie comedians, were convicted in federal court today of infringing on a copyright in a radio broadcast—a verdict that Groucho said in tragic tones "might mean a jail jolt for us."

Groucho delivered that pessimistic statement as the jury retired.

After the verdict, he and Chico, equally serious, had nothing to say. The misdemeanor conviction carries a maximum fine of $1,000, or maximum jail sentence of one year, or both.

Judge George Coe gave said sentence would be imposed next Monday. Defense counsel declared they would ask for a new trial.

$1,500 RAISED FOR THE SALVATION ARMY

With about $1,500 reported in pledges, workers in the Salvation Army campaign will hold a final checkup meeting Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Chamber of Commerce. Reports are expected to show the campaign near the $2,000 mark, which is short of the goal of $3,000.

The money pledged during the past few weeks, however, will be sufficient to continue the work of the organization for another year.

Their Stories Are The Same

A number of years ago we had occasion to interview Pat Crowe, the notorious kidnaper in the Cudahy case. Many older people will recall reading of the disappearance of the Cudahy boy, who was later returned to his parents unharmed. Crowe, one of the central figures in the kidnap-ing, was apprehended and sent to prison.

When we saw him he was a white-haired, broken old man, with a much different view on life than when he helped spirit the heir of the meat-packing family away from his parents. He had a far different attitude, too, toward the law and crime.

Crowe was a pathetic figure in his old age, trying to live down the stigma of prison, even after he had been set free. He had learned from bitter experience that crime doesn't pay. He spent his last years trying to convince others.

The kidnaper's story was parallel to the experience of R. W. Fenton, who lectured here to the high school assembly and Rotary club Friday.
Fenton, also, had his fling in the underworld. By his own admission he was a crook, a pickpocket, who estimates that he appropriated several hundred thousand dollars by unlawful means during his career of crime. He served nine years in prison in stone-masonry for his acts against society.

Fenton's reformation came earlier in life than that of Pat Crowe's. Both did wrong in different ways; one was a kidnaper, the other a thief. But their stories are exactly the same—crime doesn't pay, never has and never will.

Old Pat Crowe and the younger Fenton represent different generations, yet the truths that they learned for themselves have not changed.

The youth who permits himself to commit a crime of any kind is courting disaster. He is extending his hands to the prison keeper, though he may not think so at the time. Hardened criminals say that one crime follows another until there is no hope of retribution or redemption. The man who goes crooked always heads for a crack-up that blights or completely ruins his life.

The story of all persons who have over-stepped the law is always the same. They are sorry, they are ready to make amends, but in most cases it is too late.

Crowe told his generation that crime doesn't pay. Fenton is telling the young people of this generation the same thing. With the next generation profit on their experiences, or will it have to learn the lesson the hard and bitter way?

will be easily recognizable, and that no serious damage will appear.
For the youngsters of the village were "on their honor" and their pledge not to damage property should carry considerable weight. Most boys and girls will keep their word in acts such as was signed by the merchants and the young people of the community.

The business men made the boys and girls a business proposition—behave yourselves, let other people's property alone, and we'll show you a good time, they said.

Students in the high school, grade school and the 12 rural schools of the Business men of the village staged a big celebration for the young people.

Fixing The Fixer

Major Charles Spencer Hart, national grand exalted ruler of the Elks lodge, seems to have hit upon an eminently sensible idea of calling on Elks throughout the country to fight the "insidious evil" of traffic ticket fixing. Details of the national campaign to improve traffic conditions were received by officials of the Jacksonville lodge last week.

Major Hart is primarily interested in having his lodge do what it can to reduce the accident toll. The anti-fixing campaign follows logically, since the rather widespread practice of fixing leads to disregard of traffic regulations, which, in turn, leads to accidents.

So Major Hart is urging every Elk in the United States to help make the fixing of traffic tickets an unpopular and sportsmanlike practice. And the least any of us can do is wish him well in his campaign.

Some communities are entirely free from the practice of fixing traffic tickets. Who or what you are makes no difference to officials who are doing their duty by treating every traffic offender alike. But it is a good thing to have attention focused on the situation, so that conditions in general will be improved.

Throwing at Automobiles

Twice in the last two weeks the news columns of the Journal and Courier have contained accounts of missiles being thrown at automobiles.

An apple was thrown through the windshield of a car near Point church, west of the city, spraying the driver with shattered glass. Last Thursday night a Jacksonville taxicab driver was the victim of an acid thrower, some of the fluid striking him in an eye and causing temporary loss of sight.

Such episodes are gravely dangerous.
Drivers of either car could have easily lost control of their machines and been injured or killed.

The law should deal severely with guilty persons if apprehended. They should be taught that throwing missiles of any kind at cars is serious business. Even though a missile does not break glass, the driver if of nervous temperament, is likely to lose control of the car.

There are numerous charges under which persons guilty of such offenses might be arraigned. Disorderly conduct is one of the lesser charges that might be preferred. Assault and battery or assault with intent to kill might be the charges confronting defendants in the more serious cases.

This business of throwing at cars should be curbed. Every case should be reported to authorities, whether there is actual damage, or not. The reckless, thoughtless or criminal-minded persons responsible for such deeds should not be permitted to go unpunished.

Evading The Sales Tax

Widespread violation of the state sales tax law has been reported by investigators to the state finance department. Their reports showed that out of 205 retail accounts in Springfield, 147, or about two-thirds, have filed tax returns improperly or not at all.

Since last January $27,000 in back taxes has been collected. Prosecutions have been carried on in 34 cases.
It is said the statewide investigation has disclosed that a half million dollars is due the state in deficient tax payments.

This is a discouraging showing both in regard to respect for law and financial returns. But people who pay other taxes attempt various forms of evasion that bring them under the criminal code. No tax is popular and the sales tax probably stands at the head of the list in this respect.

But the way to get rid of an obnoxious tax law is to enforce it to the letter. Let the investigators make an honest attempt to enforce the law and stop evasion. If that doesn't work, the legislators can then talk about getting rid of the law itself.

Washington, Oct. 20.—The newsprint, milk distribution, fertilizer and automobile tire industries are all being secretly investigated by Department of Justice officials who suspect that consumers are being gyped through violations of the anti-trust laws.

The automobile finance company
"racket" is also being investigated by a Milwaukee federal grand jury. The Aluminum Company and various big oil corporations already are being directly prosecuted under the monopoly
laws.

It's all part of a campaign to try to apply anti-trust laws to industries whose products are bought by large masses of consumers. News-print prices were boosted $5 a ton the other day and the D. J. is interested in the how and why.

It also is suspected that farmers are paying unjustified, artificial prices for fertilizer. Federal Trade Commission evidence that "milk trust" companies fixed prices with so-called producer groups in order to soak consumers are being carefully sifted.

And 14 tire companies which submitted identical bids to a government purchasing agency—and then re-submitted them after they were tossed out—have had the shock of their lives to learn that their bidding methods, too, are being investigated with a view to prosecution.

Jackson Goes Ahead
Whether anti-trust laws mean anything and, if so, what, is an interesting—and important—enigma which may soon be solved. Assistant Attorney General Robert H. Jackson, head of the D. J.'s anti-trust and business regulation section, is going right ahead on the theory that those laws mean what they say. This is a rather perilous assumption, as it is commonly believed the Supreme Court at one time and another has shot them full of holes and that the monopoly laws must be amended if they are ever to be enforced.

Nevertheless, the present Supreme Court is not the same Supreme Court which held that the "steel trust" and other trusts were not illegal combinations in restraint of trade. An antitrust law, as Charles Evan Hughes—now chief justice—once said of the Constitution, is what the justices say it is.

Justices often disagree or change their minds and it is quite possible that a Supreme Court which has persuaded itself to validate some of the most controversial laws passed under the New Deal may also come to decide that the venerable statutes designed to curb monopoly aren't so toothless after all.

May Strengthen Laws
Furthermore, friends of anti-monopoly laws are edified to find that in-

Mrs. Earl Cranston, Wife of Former M.E. Bishop, Dies Oct. 21

Wife of Man Who Was Pastor Here in 1871 Expires After Accident

Word has been received in the city by Mrs. T. J. Pither of the death of Mrs. Earl Cranston, of Cincinnati, Ohio, which occurred on October 21, following an accident in her home. Mrs. Cranston passed away at the hospital, where she had been removed, her injuries resulting in pneumonia.

Mrs. Cranston was the wife of the late Bishop Earl Cranston, who was the senior bishop in the Methodist church. He also was pastor of the Grace M. E. church in this city in 1871.

Mrs. Cranston lived at New Richmond, Ohio, near Cincinnati, where she and Bishop Cranston had made their home on a large farm for many years. They also had a summer home at Epworth Heights, Ludington, Michigan, where they yearly met many Jacksonville friends. Many in Jacksonville will regret to hear of the death of Mrs. Cranston, who was beloved by all who knew her.

Burial took place in Spring Grove cemetery, Cincinnati, and services were held at Walnut Hill church, a historic church of that city.

JERSEY WILDERNESS SWALLOW'S SHERIFF

Officer Lost for 3 Hours While Hunting Nuts

Jacksonville—Just to show how wild some parts of western Jersey county really are, may be taken the fact that Sheriff Floyd Darr of this city got lost for three hours while on a peccan gathering trip with County Judge Fred W. Howell.

The two became separated in the vicinity of the glades and although Darr often has hunted in the locality he was unable to find his way back to where they had parked their car near the William Galore home.

Darr walked for about three hours before he finally came to a familiar spot, the Jacobs and Schwarz clubhouse. "Everything was on the wrong side of the river," stated Darr. About sundown he came out on a road and went to a house where he hired a farmer to drive him to the place where he had left the car.

MacMurray College to Dedicate "Finest Dorm in America"

Visitors to College Praise Modern New Residence Hall As Beautiful In Every Way

By JEAN GARDNER '41

"Such beautiful architecture, and the splendid choice of coloring, the imposing columns, white railings, and the top dorm windows, so attractive. Never have I seen such a structure, positively wonderful; aren't you proud of it?"

This is an excerpt of the conversation of a typical Sunday afternoon visitor to the new Ann Rutledge hall. They all say the same praising words, the designer from St. Louis, somebody's mother from any typical hometown, distinguished art critics, decorators, painters—everyone who views the dorm is impressed by its beauty.

The tour of inspection begins with praise of the stately entrance. The six dignified columns always are commented upon, and the manner in which they seem to guard the semi-circular porch with its beautiful Georgian lamp swinging hospitably from the top of the portico. The window above the huge white door frame is on the second balcony and the cheery light that it gives at night seems to denote coziness and comfortable friendliness.

Enter Front Hall

Upon entering the front hall, most of the onlookers sort of gasp when they see the rich coloring and the warmth of the room. The old fashioned heavy furniture on the deep green carpet, the large gold framed mirror, gray walls, and the occasional brightly upholstered chair, all give to the room a definite individual look.

But when the amazed spectator looks up, the huge crystal chandelier seems to impress even more deeply the beauty of the room. The great light has twenty individual candle shaped lights which are arranged in three tiers, four being on the top and eight on the other two rows. Between the candles are suspended pendants and balls, and reflections are always being caught and twirled around as the breeze from the front door swings the intricate decorations. The entire chandelier is hung from the ceiling of the third floor by a gold colored velvet cord and the staircase winds down around this main point of attraction, forming an unusual frame for it.

Lounge Is Next

Progressing through the entry hall, the lounge is next in the line of vision. The portrait of James MacMurray, the benefactor of the new dorm, stands graciously above the fireplace to welcome all visitors. The carpet in this room is also deep green, and the drapes are a gorgeous blending gold. The large mirror is very fitting with its black and heavy trim. The walls and the wall paper are a neutral gray. To the side of this large lounge are four adjoining date parlors which are smaller in size but equally decorative.

In every group of visitors there are always the proud parents who are anxious to see the girls' rooms. The first floor rooms are finished in light yellow woodwork, and the trim, which is a bright blue, is brought out in the drapes and the ties on the venetian blinds, as well as any personal effects which the individuals may choose. The blue chintz window drapes are very appropriate for a girls' room as they are figured with dainty old-fashioned bouquets. The maple furniture is the early colonial style and is sturdy built as well as being comfortable and nice looking. The desk is the usual type with knee holes on each side and two book shelves on the end, but the desk lamp is a very new feature. It is of the modern reflector type which is approved for studying and is shaded in a dull finished chromium. The base is fastened to the under side of the desk and it curves up far enough that sufficient light is given on both sides of the desk. The mottled linoleum floor is very practical because it does not show soil easily. The dressers are plain but attractive, and the mirror is hung from the molding instead of being ordinarily attached. And the closets—these are a source of great joy to the girls as they are very large and roomy and have the latest conveniences. The handy shoe rack which fits right into the closet itself, and the tricky skirt hanger which accommodates several skirts and hangs conveniently on the inside of the closet door, all these little additions make the rooms as practical as they are beautiful.

Bathrooms Very Modern

A third bathroom is located between every two rooms, and they are of various colors. The first floor baths are green trimmed in a bright finished chromium. All the shower fixtures, mirror edges, and lavatory handles are chromium, and this gives the rooms a very modern appearance. Most of the bathrooms contain stall showers, but at the end of each hall is a bathroom with a tub, for those who prefer it.

As father and mother are now pacified since they know how well daughter is provided for, the group continues on down the hall to view the laundry and kitchen facilities. At this point the architect again takes particular note, as it has been said that MacMurray's new dorm has the most modern conveniences, and has outdone every other school in the United States in providing the unusual for the happiness and content of the students.

The laundry is large and very well equipped for even a family sized wash, which of course is not necessary. However, the spaciousness makes it possible for at least two girls to be working at one time. The girl who has washing to do does not interfere in the least with the ironer, and this accommodation is a great aid during the Saturday morning rush. The walls are a peach colored tile, and the floor is again the many toned mottled effect. The two tubs are at one side of the room while the collapsible ironing board unfolds from the walls at the opposite side. In all, the pleasant coloring of the room makes an atmosphere in which it is not at all difficult to do tedious laundry.

Cozy Kitchen

Ah, at last we come to the room which on Saturday nights emits that delicious fudgy odor which practically raises a riot among non-participating members of the dorm—you guessed it, the kitchen. The source of greatest satisfaction to the starved students is this little cozy-kitchen, because it adds to the pleasures and excitement of dorm life. All those tempting looking cupboards are always being opened by curious sightseers, but they are disappointed if it is food they are looking for. We all know too well what would happen if we put mother's homemade jam in there to keep until the next spread, so, instead of being used for pantry cupboards, there are only cooking utensils and dishes placed there.

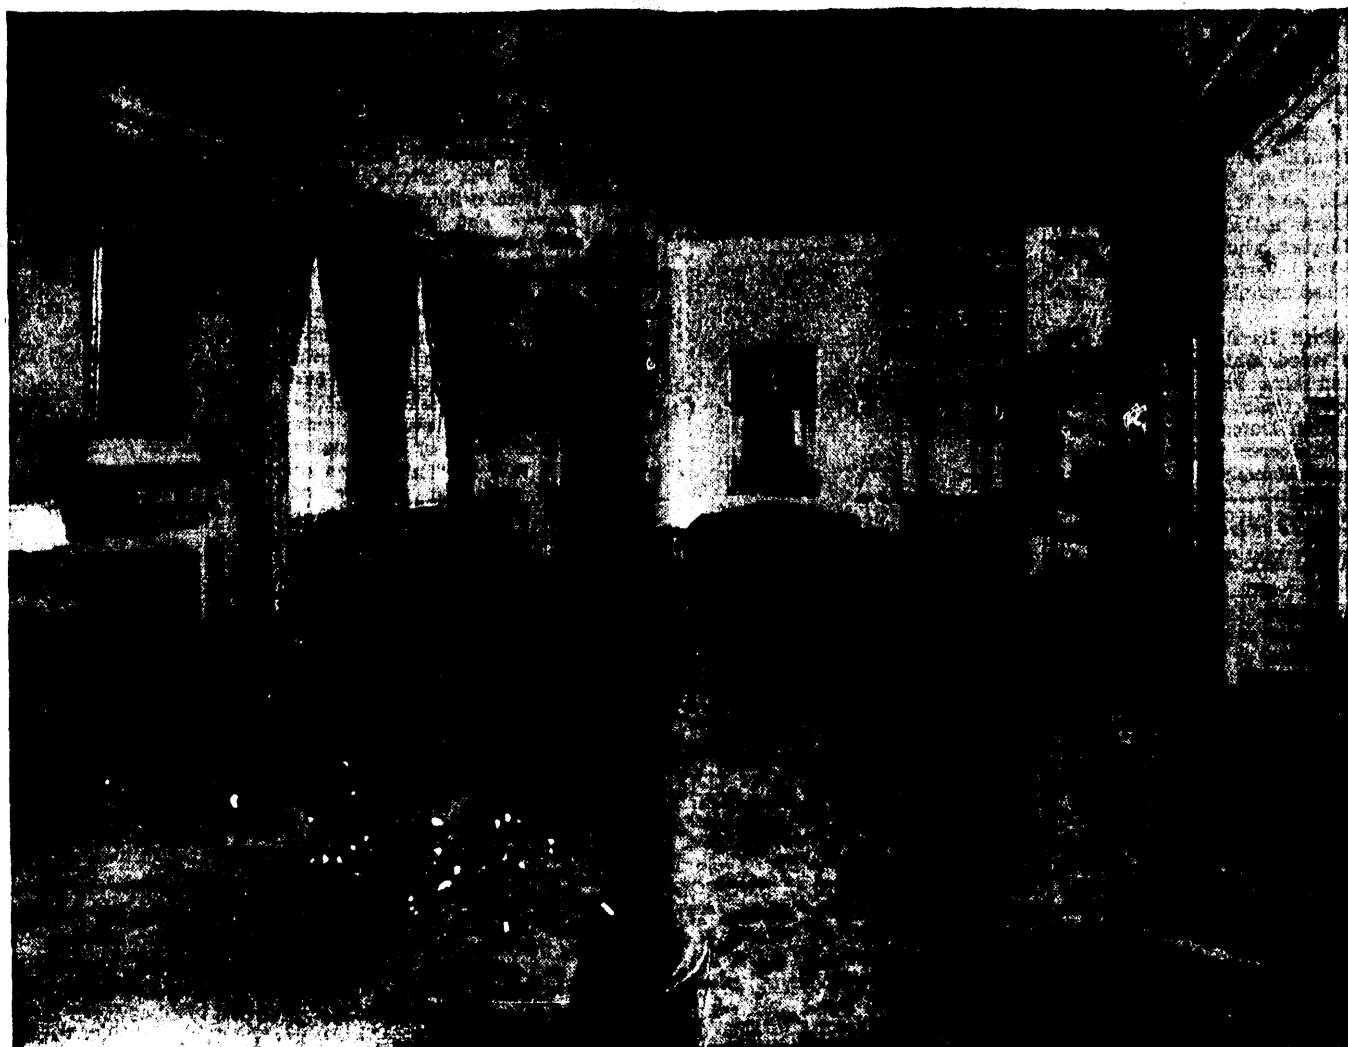

The tiny rooms at the end of each hall are telephone rooms. The calls are received at the main office, and the girl in charge there rings the buzzer in the girls' room. The girl then buzzes back to the office as a signal that she has received the message, and then goes to the telephone booth and gets her call. This system of signals is very new and different and has been very satisfactory.

For those who wish to inspect the great chandelier in detail and also the visitors who desire to see the other floors, we shall climb up the winding staircase. The stairs are curved beautifully around the light, as we mentioned before, and have a dark ironwork railing which gives the appearance of a typical southern house.

Lovely Staircase

Imagine the delight of a young man watching his lovely lady from the first floor as she sweeps majestically down the steps of the winding staircase, her gown trailing on the rich green carpeting. It all seems like a beautiful

Modern New Residence Hall
As Beautiful In Every Way

By JANET SWANSON, '38

On the occasion of the dedication of our new dormitory, the thoughts of all students and friends of MacMurray College for Women are turned towards two of our best friends, Senator and Mrs. James E. MacMurray. During the years in which Senator and Mrs. MacMurray have been connected with the college, they have shown us again and again the interest which they have in MacMurray College, and now they have given the college another lovely new residence hall, Ann Rutledge hall, which is to be dedicated tomorrow afternoon.

Senator MacMurray, who is known personally to many of us and of whom we have all heard many times, has had a very full and interesting life. He was born and spent his early years on a farm in Knox county, Missouri. He took a course in law and literature at Chaddock College, Quincy, Illinois, and graduated from that institution in 1894. It was Senator MacMurray's intention to practice law in Quincy, but he soon turned his interest to business, the field in which he has been so successful.

In Manufacturing Business
He entered the manufacturing business at Quincy in 1890, but in 1899 moved to Chicago and took up his residence there. For years, Senator MacMurray has been very prominent in business and manufacturing circles. He has been president of the Acme Steel Company since 1890, is a director of the Kellogg Switchboard and Supply Company, and also serves on the board of directors of the American Tag Company.

Senator MacMurray, however, has not allowed his life to be dominated by business and money-making interests. Both he and Mrs. MacMurray have for years been leaders in religious, political, and educational undertakings. Senator MacMurray once said that he divided his life into three periods. The first period, that which included the ten years after his graduation from college, was one of hard work. In this time he earned $100,000. The next ten years of his life, those which followed his entrance into the manufacturing business, were spent in the accumulation of $1,000,000.

Is a Philanthropist
If Senator MacMurray had willed to and the rest of his life in the amassing of a great fortune, he might today be one of the few enormously wealthy men of this country. Instead, however, he decided that such a life would not give him the fullest enjoyment, and he has devoted most of his time in the third part of his life to civic duties and the philanthropies for which he is noted. Senator MacMurray has been called "the nation's wisest philanthropist."

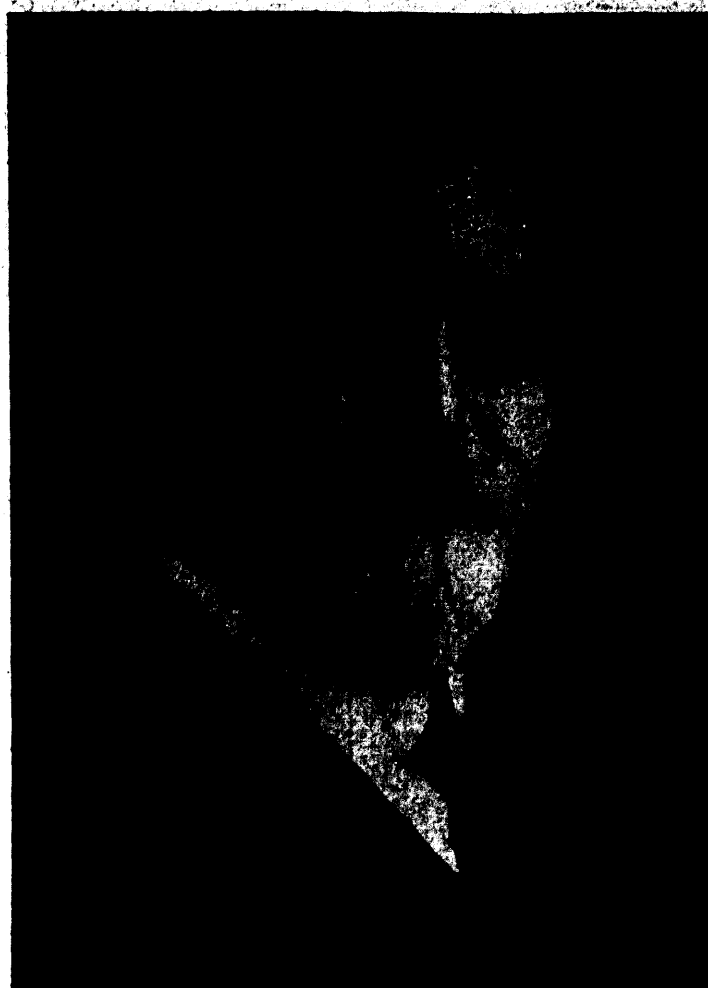

Among the various fields in which Senator MacMurray is interested is that of politics. He took an active part in promoting good government when, in 1920, he was elected to the Illinois Senate. As a member of the legislature, he put into practice the Lincolnian virtues of honesty and common sense.

President of Board
MacMurray College was fortunate indeed to have Senator MacMurray as president of its board of trustees in 1926 when President C. F. McClelland put forth his plan of a twenty-year program intended to make this college the outstanding college for women in the middle west. Senator MacMurray was far-sighted and progressive enough to give to this program his hearty support and cooperation.

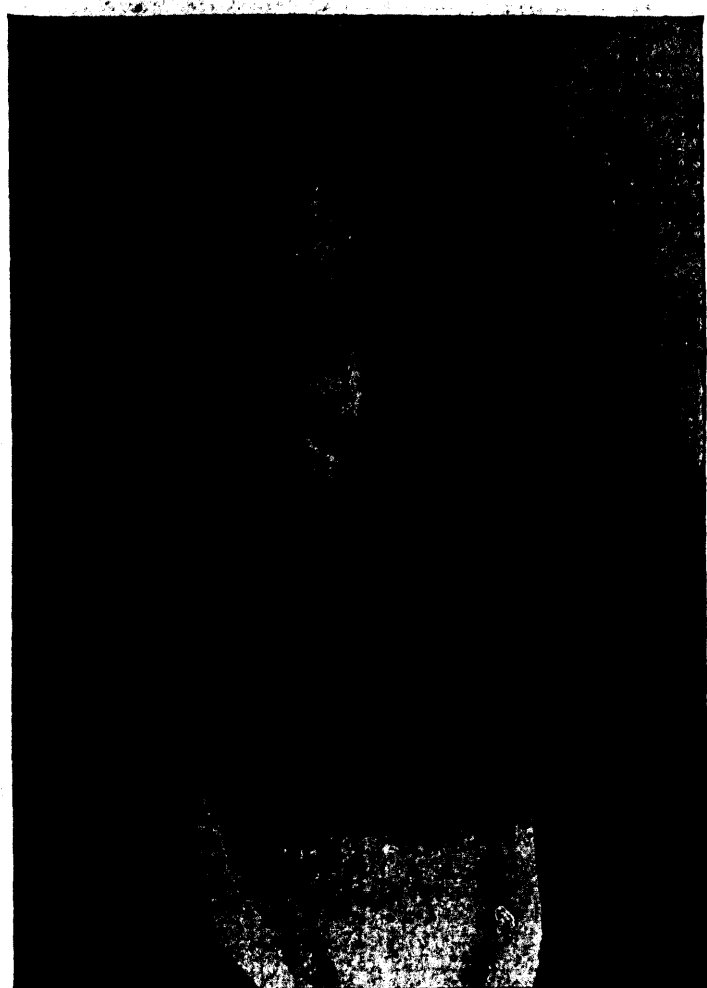

He is still president of the board of trustees.

What Senator MacMurray has done for our college in the past ten years is common knowledge. He and Mrs. MacMurray have been most generous in their gifts to MacMurray College for Women, as the former Illinois Woman's College is now called. As a result of their generosity, we have McClelland dining hall, Jade residence hall, and now the new dormitory to be christened Ann Rutledge hall. Moreover, they also contributed largely to the building of MacMurray science hall.

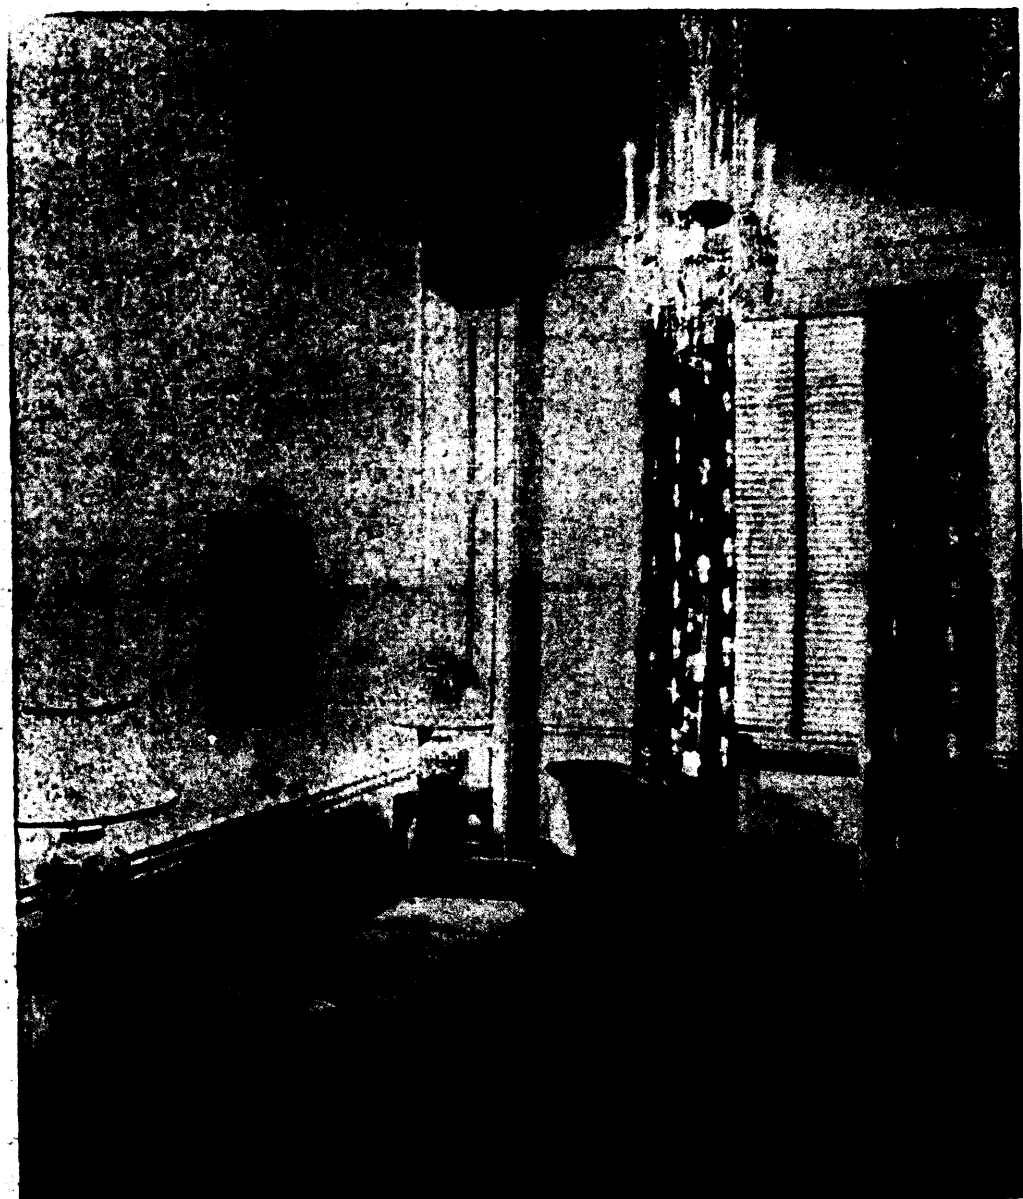

A Religious Leader
Senator MacMurray has been a leader in religious organizations and activities also. He is a member of the board of foreign missions of the Methodist Episcopal church and is a trustee of the Methodist Episcopal church of Pasadena, California. Senator and Mrs. MacMurray are known and loved in Chicago, as in Barrington, Illinois, and Pasadena, California, where they now make their home. They believe that fast disappearing goods who believe that religion and education should go hand in hand, lighting the way to progress.

JAMES E. MACMURRAY

JANE ARESON MACMURRAY

ANN RUTLEDGE DATE PARLOR

College Conception of Ann Rutledge

Ann Rutledge lived in a period when photography was little known, so there are no pictures of her in existence. However, this is the MacMurray idea of what she would be like. It is posed by Carolyn Gillespy, a sophomore.

for study and recreational periods. The carpet is blue-green and the walls are light yellow with the wall paper yellow also and having an indefinite print of light color. The furniture here also is maple, and some are upholstered in deep red cushions which contrast with the deep blue davenport and the green drapes which are flowered in gold. The mirror which hangs above the davenport is very odd in that the design on the upper portion is a peacock's spread feathers. The pictures are old fashioned portraits and are very individual in their simplicity.

The second floor rooms are furnished very much like those on the first floor, but the woodwork is a deep apricot. This sounds and appears very unusual but the coloring is very pretty because of its cheerfulness. The second floor has the same conveniences and facilities as the first floor, the main difference being color.

Third-Floor Lounge
The third floor is also similar, the change in color being to green in this instance. The lounge, however, is very different as it is even more informal than the second floor lounge. The chairs and tables are darker brown and are very much heavier and more sturdy. The wall paper is tan print and the short windows are draped in bright green with matching ties on the Venetian blinds. The mirror in this room is also unique in its place above the fireplace. It is colonial connex in style with very heavy gold trimming. The pictures in this room too are old fashioned to accompany the room's antiqueness. The huge, tall cupboard which is open in the front is also traditionally of this period.

When the beauty of this last lovely room has been duly impressed upon the group, they seem reluctant to go. Everyone is satisfied to the last degree that the girls are well taken care of, and especially father and mother are confident. The designer is pleased because of the multitude of ideas that he has gained and that can be applied to his own work. The color scheme has opened up a new field of combinations, and the individual recreation rooms are so unique and new that the thought should be carried out in all structures of this type. Art critics are expressing joy with each new sequence of colorings. Every type of individual feels a sense of security and hominess. Each person leaves, glad that he took the time to view this inspiring masterpiece, happy and thankful that these advantages could be given to his or her personal friends.

It is planned to convert the basement of the building into recreation rooms with bowling alleys, ping-pong tables, and other equipment, sometime in the future, thus making further provision for the girls' convenience and enjoyment.

Mrs. Dora Neal is house mother of Ann Rutledge hall, which is to be chiefly a senior dormitory, but all four of the classes are represented there this year. The juniors have Jane hall as their special residence, the sophomores Harker hall, and the freshmen Main hall. No faculty members are living in the dormitories this year.

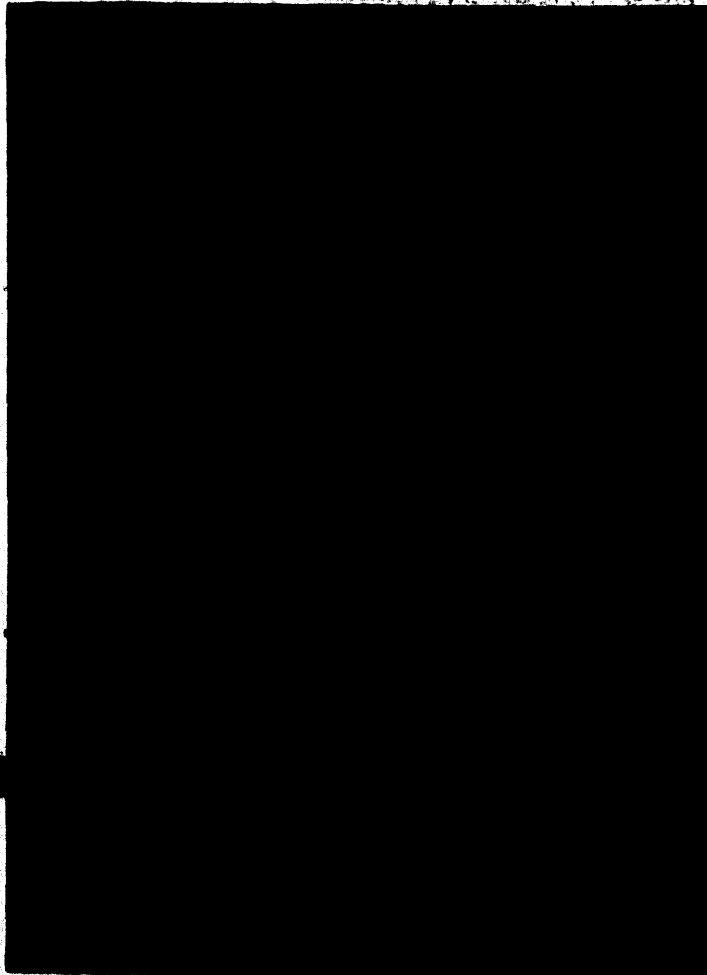

Jane A. MacMurray Takes Active Part

Mrs. James E. MacMurray is in complete sympathy and cooperation with her husband's interests and philanthropies. Like him, she has taken an active part in religious and educational circles and has lived a very full and useful life in the performance of these various activities.

Although Mrs. MacMurray can not know each of us personally, we feel that she is our friend. Whenever she comes, she brings to the campus a charming personality and a kindly and genuine interest in our work and life here. Her gay spirit and infectious laugh are distinctive features.

One of Mrs. MacMurray's chief enjoyments is the bringing of beauty and comfort to our surroundings. She is herself an admirer of beauty; her home is tastefully decorated, and she is sincerely anxious that the students of MacMurray College should enjoy these same advantages. She believes that our campus and dormitories should be made as attractive as possible, and it is largely to her that Jane hall and our new Ann Rutledge hall owe their beautiful furnishings and decoration. Thus, to us should these buildings be a continual reminder of Mrs. MacMurray's generosity and friendly interest in our college.

David Prince Will Organize Council on Safety During Week

Have Cooperated with Red Cross in Making Survey of Homes

The Safety Patrol club of the David Prince school has been engaged in a number of safety promotion activities during the present week. Cooperating with the Red Cross, which has conducted a home inspection campaign, the patrol has sponsored or had plans made for the following:

1. A fire drill for the school on Tuesday.
 2. An inspection of all lockers in the building on Wednesday.
 3. An inspection on Thursday of the school building and play grounds for safety hazards.
 4. The patrol officers will demonstrate to the faculty at a meeting on Monday, Nov. 1, the use of the fire extinguishers in the building.
 5. A safety lesson for November has been prepared for distribution to the home room groups next Tuesday.
- The club is ready for the organization on Tuesday, Nov. 2, of the David Prince Junior Safety Council. This is made possible through the school's membership in the National Safety Council. At this meeting a constitution will be adopted and plans formulated for the further extension of safety education in school. The membership of the council will include the safety patrol, representatives from each home room, the corridor officers, and the student council. The worth of such organizations as the Safety Patrol and the Junior Safety Council has been proved by the fact that each year there are less traffic accidents among children and more among adults. One of the reasons for this undoubtedly is the fact that fathers and mothers and other adults are not protected by the safe habits which the boys and girls of today are developing through their study at school.

The following will be members of the council: The Safety Patrol and its officers: Captain Horace Stringham, First Lt. Carl Nieman, Second Lt. Donald Moore, Secretary Paul Lindemann; Patrolmen Raymond Christenson, Bill Hudson, Jack Miller, James Ward, Junior Wilhoit, Donald Witt, Leo Taylor; Section 1, Francis Smith; Section 2, Patrolman Bud Williams; Section 3, Patrolman Paul Lindemann; Section 4, Patrolman Billy Gilbert; Section 5, Ralph Gilbert; Section 7, Chester Horton; Section 8, Patrolman William Dwyer; Section 9, Patrolman Bud Walker; Section 10, Edward Hennessey; Section 11, Raymond Harris; Section 12, Charles Honey; Section 13, Edwin Ahlquist; Section 14, Robert Flynn; corridor officers, Patrolman Jerry Murphy; student council, Patrolman Horace Stringham, Paul Lindemann, secretary, Leslie M. Zastrow, sponsor.

"THE LIFE OF EMILE ZOLA"
1840-1902

AT HOME (left) with his beloved wife, Alexandrine (Gloria Holden) Zola spends his most contented and happy hours.

DREYFUS (below), played by Joseph Schildkraut, a pitiful figure, unable to comprehend the proclamation of his release from Devil's Island.

EMILE ZOLA (Paul Muni) rises from obscurity to become one of the great novelists of all time. Middle-aged and wealthy, he is prepared to retire from his literary labors, when the false imprisonment of Captain Dreyfus arouses his crusading spirit.

ON TRIAL for libel, because of his famous "I Accuse" on behalf of Dreyfus, Zola pleads his own defense.

NANA (left), played by Erin O'Brien-Moore, the only fictional character in the film, is the inspiration for Zola's first great novel — "Nana."

The new Fox Majestic Theatre is proud to present Mr. Paul Muni, Academy award winner, in a performance unparalleled in screen history, and in a picture unparalleled by any past production—"THE LIFE OF EMILE ZOLA", starting Sunday, October 31st. The picture is the second of the first run features to be held at the Majestic. The first was "The Lost Horizon".

Illinois College Snatches Break To Beat Wheaton By Score Of 6 To 0

Northwestern Wildcats Beat Badgers, 14-6; Nebraska Wins From Scraggy Hoosiers, 7 to 0

Jacksonville, Wis., Oct. 30.—(P)—Northwestern pushed Wisconsin from the ranks of the undefeated in Big Ten football competition today with a 14 to 6 victory before a crowd of 30,000 in a game that dragged repeatedly because of unseasonably warm weather.

Northwestern, resuming its title-defense stride after a setback by Ohio State last week, found the Wisconsin forward wall's weaknesses early in the contest and stuck mainly to conservative ground plays. The Wildcats broke through big holes in the Badger forward wall consistently to harass the Wisconsin backs.

Northwestern gained a total of 276 yards by rushing while Wisconsin made 51 yards on ground plays. The Badgers had an advantage of only 8 yards on gain made from pass plays, although they completed four of 11 attempts while Northwestern was successful three times on four attempts.

Captain Don Hoop, left halfback, put Northwestern in the lead midway in the first period, plunging to a touchdown from the 5-yard line after he led a drive from his own 33. Nick Conteras, quarterback, kicked the extra point from placement.

The Wisconsin pass attack produced the Badgers' lone touchdown. Ed Hartman, reserve quarterback, threw a long pass to Bill Schmitt, halfback. In the end zone to clinch a march from mid-field, Fullback Howard Welles missed the kick for extra point.

The Wildcats started a second touchdown march from their own 31. Fullback Jay Lasky carried the ball over the goal line in the third quarter and Conteras again kicked the extra point.

Score by periods:
Northwestern..... 7 0 7 0-14
Wisconsin..... 0 6 0 0-6
Northwestern scoring: Touchdowns, Hoop, Lasky. Points after touchdowns, Conteras 2 (place kicks).
Wisconsin scoring: Touchdown—Schmitt.

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 30.—(P)—Biff Jones' hitless wonders still are at it.

In a dizzy, daffy football game crammed with contradictions, his Nebraska Cornhuskers slashed out a lone touchdown on the first scrimmage play of the game to defeat the potent Hoosiers of Indiana, 7 to 0, and continue in the list of the nation's unbeaten eleven.

Almost before the 37,000 fans, second largest home crowd in cornhusker history, had settled themselves, they were on their feet roaring. Little Jack Dodd took a short shovel pass from Johnny Howell behind the Nebraska 35 yard line, where the Huskers had put the ball in play after an out-of-bounds kickoff, and started eating up the yards around his left end.

His teammates came to his aid with superb downfield blocking and he crossed the goal standing up. Lowell English placekicked the goal as the hand on the big clock registered 17 seconds.

The Huskers failed to register a first down until midway in the final period, and wound up with two, one of them on a penalty.

They gained a net 25 yards from rushing, and on the two forward passes attempted they gained a total of 88 yards.

Meanwhile the sturdy Hoosiers surged up and down the field like a big wave registering 14 first downs. They gained a net 136 yards by land and 132 yards by air.

War Admiral Wins $15,000 Handicap

Laurel, Md., Oct. 30.—(P)—War Admiral, Samuel D. Riddle's little brown colt, scampered to his seventh straight triumph today to win the mile and a quarter Washington handicap and become the big money winner of the year.

His victory by a length and a half over Heffly in the fast time of 2:04.4-5 was worth $15,350 to the Admiral, bringing his earnings for the year to $160,820 and showing him ahead of C. S. Howard's Seabiscuit in money earning ranks.

The prospect of a duel between War Admiral and Seabiscuit, the handicap champion of the season, vanished when Seabiscuit was scratched early this morning.

White Hall Spills Jerseyville 7 to 0; Keep Record Clean

Punch Across Touchdown in Fourth Quarter After Missing 3 Chances

White Hall—Coming through in the fourth quarter with a 30 yard drive, White Hall high defeated Jerseyville prepsters 7 to 0 in an Illinois Valley conference game here Saturday after missing three other chances from inside the ten yard line.

Striking more viciously than on the other thrusts, White Hall ripped one six yard hole for McCarthy, and then tore another three yard hole for him to score the touchdown. Kennedy plunged through the point after touchdown.

The Maroons kept Jerseyville backed up throughout the game, holding them in their own end of the field most of the time. Jerseyville couldn't find the punch to drive back the White Hall forwards consistently, although they did register several first downs.

The victory left White Hall undefeated in the conference, with games against Roodhouse and Carrollton still on the schedule. The Maroons play Rushville at White Hall next week.

Chicago, Oct. 30.—(P)—Judge George W. Bristow of Paris overruled in circuit court a motion for a new trial for Harold L. Ohio State Beats Chicago U., 39 to 0

Chicago, Oct. 30.—(P)—Ohio State's high-powered gridiron machine coughed and sputtered for one period today, but found the proper carburetor adjustment and rolled to a 39 to 0 triumph over Chicago's game little band of Maroons.

It was the Bucks' third straight victory on the road to the Big Ten title, or at least a share of the honors. The Maroons, without a victory for the season, tried desperately, first to connect with an upset triumph, then, after the Ohio State juggernaut had rolled them almost flat, to save themselves from a shutout. But, most of their efforts merely helped the fleet, alert Buckeyes to scoring opportunities.

Notre Dame Beats Mighty Minnesota, 7-6; Michigan Downs Illini, 7-6

College Gridiron Briefs

Carthage
Carthage, Ill., Oct. 30.—(P)—Carthage College football fortunes received a double setback today—a homecoming loss to Elmhurst 7-0 and the service of Captain Lloyd Geiger, who was injured critically when tackled in the last quarter. Two passes by Bucholz, the second to Rosbach, accounted for the Elmhurst touchdown. Carthage was stopped on the one yard line in a last quarter rally.

Northern Illinois
Charleston, Ill., Oct. 30.—(P)—Northern Illinois Teachers of DeKalb scored in every quarter today to defeat Eastern Teachers of Charleston, 24-6, in an Illinois intercollegiate conference game. Resek, Davis and Barber dashed across on end runs while Sandarg, a guard, intercepted a pass in the fourth period and ran 70 yards. Dufelmeier smashed through the line for the Eastern Teachers only score.

Principalia
Elmhurst, Ill., Oct. 30.—(P)—A St. Louis cadet by the name of Fred Brinkop upset an otherwise happy homecoming celebration here today as he led Kemper Military Academy of Boonville, Mo., to a 26 to 0 shutout over Principalia. Brinkop, senior halfback, scored the first touchdown in the opening period and was on the firing end of passes which led to the three other touchdowns in the fourth quarter. He kicked the extra point after the first and third touchdowns.

Shurtleff
Alton, Ill., Oct. 30.—(P)—Shurtleff College broke into the victory column today for the first time this season with a 12 to 0 victory over Bureka.

St. Viator
Bourbonnais, Ill., Oct. 30.—(P)—Undeclared in two years of Illinois intercollegiate conference football play, St. Viator closed its 1937 league season today with a decisive 19-0 homecoming triumph over McKendree. The only blemish on the St. Viator conference record this year was a tie by Illinois Wesleyan.

Galesburg
Galesburg, Ill., Oct. 30.—(P)—A clever little Cornell team from Mt. Vernon, Ia., won its seventh consecutive game and gained undisputed leadership in the Midwest conference football race today by subduing Knox 24-0. A blocked kick led to Cornell's first score. Two passes and a short dash by Brand accounted for the others. Knox never threatened.

Monmouth
Monmouth, Ill., Oct. 30.—(P)—Monmouth dealt Carleton College of Northfield, Minn., its first Midwest conference defeat in two years today 14-0. Monmouth capitalized on two of its four scoring chances, Chambers and Whitmarsh scoring. Carleton's only threat came in the fourth period and was halted on the 15 yard line.

North Central
Naperville, Ill., Oct. 30.—(P)—North Central's 50th annual homecoming football game ended in a scoreless tie with Lake Forest today when both teams fumbled away scoring chances and two Lake Forest field goal attempts failed. Lake Forest reached the one foot line in the final minute of play, but could not score.

Augustana
Macomb, Ill., Oct. 30.—(P)—Augustana College jolted the Illinois intercollegiate conference football tie chances of Western Illinois Teachers today, but kept its own intact by scoring a 20-12 victory. It was the third straight conference win for the Vikings who scored all their points in the first half. The setback was the first for the Teachers.

State Normal
Normal, Ill., Oct. 30.—(P)—State Normal, tied twice but undefeated in Illinois intercollegiate conference play, scored a 13-6 homecoming triumph over Southern Teachers today. The victors marched 64 yards in the opening three minutes of play for the first marker. Shortly thereafter, Joe Vucich returned a punt 70 yards for the other. Rigdon gave Southern Teachers their score in the third period when he intercepted a pass and ran 85 yards. State Normal repulsed another threat in the last minute of play, holding the Teachers on the three yard line.

Harvard
Princeton, N. J., Oct. 30.—(P)—It was a long haul, but Dick Harlow's Harvard finally made it. Before a crowd of 48,000 gathered today in Palmer Stadium, the Crimson developed sufficient power to steam-roller Princeton, 34-6 in the first "Big Three" game of the season. Thus Harlow was amply rewarded after two and a half seasons of fruitless waiting for Harvard's first major triumph of his Cambridge coaching career. The Crimson had not won over Princeton since 1923.

Yale
New Haven, Conn., Oct. 30.—(P)—Yale hauled itself back from the brink of the Blue's first defeat of the football season today by tying Dartmouth, 9 to 9 with only three seconds to go in an electrifying finish witnessed by a capacity crowd of 73,000 spectators. The Elis snatched a touchdown from the air, with a last-ditch flourish, after Dartmouth's rugged convalescents, getting better as the game progressed, appeared to have clinched a third straight conquest over Yale with a 90-yard touchdown pass by Bob McLeod and a field goal from the 30-yard line by Phil Dostal.

Army
West Point, N. Y., Oct. 30.—(P)—Army rode out of the trenches of a hard battle with a last half offensive today to crush Virginia Military Institute, "The Little West Point of the South" 20-7, before a sellout throng of 27,000 spectators at Michie Stadium. Held to a six point lead by the hard-charging Virginians in the first half, featured by great field running and passing by Paul Shu of the red shirted invaders, the Cadet backs finally broke through to pile up 14 points and rout the Minute Men from Lexington, Va., though they came back with a desperate aerial attack in the closing minutes to avert a scoreless defeat.

Pennsylvania
Philadelphia, Oct. 30.—(P)—Pennsylvania's twice beaten football team found its real strength today to emerge triumphant over Navy by a 14 to 7 score in a hard fought game before a crowd of 63,000. The Quakers, underdogs before the game, three times turned back Navy scoring threats in the first quarter and then struck with startling suddenness to build up a two touchdown lead that Navy was unable to overcome. The Midshipmen scored their lone touchdown in the third quarter.

Missouri

Fighting Irish Retain Margin Of Lead Over Gophers; Zuppke Outfit Fails In Pass Defense

Minneapolis, Oct. 30.—(P)—They proved again today why they call them "The Fighting Irish of Notre Dame."

Fighting back a supposedly mighty Minnesota team which figured to sweep them right off the gridiron, Notre Dame rose to the heights to defeat the Golden Gophers in one of the major upsets of the season by the narrow margin of 7 to 6.

The results stunned a record crowd of 64,000 spectators who sat under a brilliant sunlight canopy in Memorial stadium expecting Minnesota to triumph.

Notre Dame battled the Gophers to a standstill early in the first period, after scoring a touchdown, and then protected its slim lead like football masters. Minnesota displayed no flash of class until the closing minutes of the game when the Gophers opened up with a forward pass attack which advanced the ball from their own 12 yard line to the Notre Dame 35 before it ended with a pass interception.

Just as he did a week ago, Chuck Sweeney, the smiling Irish lad of Bloomington, Ill., saved the game for Notre Dame. After Minnesota had scored a touchdown in the second period, Sweeney blocked George Faust's try for extra point, allowing the Fighting Irish to retain their one point lead.

It was the same Sweeney who last week rocketed into Allen McFarland in the end zone to give Notre Dame a safety in its 9 to 7 surprise victory over the Navy.

The first time the Irish got the ball on a punt, action began. Andy Pupils, Notre Dame's little quarterback, ran the ball back 35 yards along the side lines, going to Minnesota's 34 before Larry Buhler, Minnesota halfback, smacked him out of bound. Without losing the ball, the Irish drove to the four. From there Pupils on a quarterback sneak, dove across the line and then kicked goal.

Minnesota scored on a tricky double lateral and a forward with Captain Ray King snaring the ball on the five yard line and going across the edge of the field without a Notre Dame player touching him. Marty Christianson started the pass, tossing it to Rudy Gmitro who heaved it to Van Every who tossed to King.

That was the spot for Sweeney who came charging forward to block Faust's kick.

Held to a six point lead by the hard-charging Virginians in the first half, featured by great field running and passing by Paul Shu of the red shirted invaders, the Cadet backs finally broke through to pile up 14 points and rout the Minute Men from Lexington, Va., though they came back with a desperate aerial attack in the closing minutes to avert a scoreless defeat.

Pennsylvania
Philadelphia, Oct. 30.—(P)—Pennsylvania's twice beaten football team found its real strength today to emerge triumphant over Navy by a 14 to 7 score in a hard fought game before a crowd of 63,000. The Quakers, underdogs before the game, three times turned back Navy scoring threats in the first quarter and then struck with startling suddenness to build up a two touchdown lead that Navy was unable to overcome. The Midshipmen scored their lone touchdown in the third quarter.

Illinois Employers' First Payroll Tax Is Due in January

Settlement for 1937 Comes in Lump Sum; Later to Be Made Monthly

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 30.—(AP)—Illinois employers learned today their first "payroll tax" under the state's new unemployment insurance will be due in January, as a lump sum settlement on 1937 payrolls.

Starting with 1938, the compensation contributions are to be made monthly.

These requirements were announced by Labor Director Martin P. Durkin in his first regulations on the obligations of employers and workers under the law providing for Illinois cooperation in the unemployment compensation phase of the federal social security program.

The 1937 lump sum contributions, the first payments which have been called for, are to be based on a rate of 3.6 per cent of wages payable for employment for the half-year starting July 1 (or 1.8 per cent for the entire year).

Commencing January 1, employers will make payments at the rate of 2.7 per cent, the contributions to be paid during the month following that for which they are due.

Besides fixing the period for making lump sum contributions, other regulations announced by Durkin would require that:

Ann Rutledge Hall Of MacMurray College To Be Dedicated Today

"Old Standards in a Changing World," will be the subject of the main address on the program of the afternoon, by Judge Florence E. Judge Allen, in 1924, delivered the baccalaureate address here in which she made a plea for women to give more of their earnest thought and participation to the civic affairs of their country.

Teachers of Adult Education Hold Conference Here

Training Required for Adult Education Group: Give Program

The study group composed of teachers of federal education held their weekly conference in the Public Library Thursday evening. This training is required for teachers of adult education, and the programs are planned by the local supervisor. The first hour is devoted to some phase of professional work and the second to the discussion of history and current events.

Last year a training course was sent out from the Chicago office planned by the adult education department of the University of Chicago. This proved most helpful to the adult education program, and much of the bibliography can be used for individual reading.

Some current and timely articles as appear in the best educational magazines are used in the study group. A leader is appointed from among the group each week who prepares to lead the discussion and conduct a forum.

Current events discussions are proving interesting and result in wide reading. A fine report of the lecture of Dr. Ernest Price, of International House, Chicago, upon the crisis in the Far East, was given Thursday evening and will be followed next week by open discussion of this topic. The relation of education to good citizenship is the theme for the year's work. Each member of the group is enthusiastic over the possibilities of self improvement from the work in adult education and much of benefit is carried to the class rooms as a result of the training course.

Commissioner to Be Named by Voters In County Tuesday

Fearneyhough, Rees in Contest; Justices of Peace and Constables to Be Elected

Morgan county voters will go to the polls next Tuesday to elect a county commissioner, justices of the peace and constables. The campaign has been unusually quiet, no public meetings having been held by either Democrats or Republicans.

The two candidates for the commissioner's office have been campaigning actively during the past weeks however. The contestants for this office are the incumbent, Walter Fearneyhough, of Lynnville, who has the Republican nomination and William Rees of Franklin, Democratic nominee. Rees has served in this office before.

The board of commissioners now consists of two Republicans, Fearneyhough and Erwin Aufdenkamp, and a Democrat, Clifton Davis. Fearneyhough's defeat would give the Democrats control of the board.

There are five justices of the peace and as many constables to be elected in Jacksonville Tuesday and a smaller number in other towns in the county. The polls will open at six o'clock in the morning and close at five o'clock in the afternoon.

Relatives in Jacksonville have received the announcement of the marriage of Miss Margaret M. Dowds, of Bridgeport, Connecticut, and Russell E. Cumming, of Jacksonville, which took place October 16th, in Bridgeport.

The following account is taken from the Bridgeport paper. "Washington Park M. E. church was the scene of a pretty wedding this afternoon when Miss Margaret M. Dowds, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Dowds of 510 Colorado avenue, became the bride of Russell E. Cumming, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Cumming, 801 West Lafayette avenue, of Jacksonville, Illinois. The ceremony was performed at 4:00 o'clock by Rev. Harold R. Brennan, pastor, using the double ring ceremony.

"Half an hour of nuptial music played by Charles Lee, organist, assisted by Gilbert Johnson, baritone preceded the service and included 'To a Wild Rose,' Mac Dowell; 'Behave,' sung by Mr. Johnson; 'Benediction,' Mac Dowell; 'To a Water Lily,' and 'O Promise Me,' sung by Mr. Johnson.

"Variegated garden flowers and palms decorated the church for the ceremony. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white brocade velvet, made with a heart-shaped neckline, shirred bodice buttoned down the back to the waistline, long sleeves and a long train.

"Her tulle veil was draped from a small cap with strap under the chin and caught at the back with orange blossoms. She carried white chrysanthemums.

"Miss Elma Dowds, as maid of honor, wore an empire gown of tropical blue velvet, shoulder length veil of matching shade draped from a coronet of tiny pink button chrysanthemums.

"The two bridesmaids, Miss Heather Dowds, sister of the bride and Miss Jessie Brown, of Brooklyn, N. Y., formerly of Bridgeport, were gowned in raspberry velvet, made with high neck lines and short puffed sleeves.

Charles M. Tuttle was the best man, and Carmen Young and Murdo Dowds the bride's brother were the ushers.

"At the reception which followed the ceremony and which was held at the bride's home, Mrs. Dowds, sister of the bridegroom assisted in receiving guests.

"Mr. and Mrs. Cumming left that evening for New York City. The bride wore a navy blue suit with a three-quarter coat, and Dubonnet accessories."

Mrs. Cumming has been with the Southern New England Telephone company and Mr. Cumming is with the General Electric Supply company. He attended the public schools in Jacksonville, at the Washington school, when Miss Agnes Luak was principal, and graduated from the Jacksonville high school.
